RAYMOND FOURNIER PREFONTAINE,

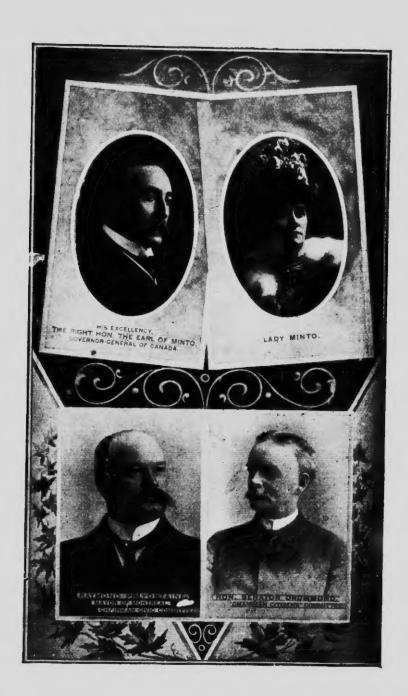

Mayor of Montreal, and Member of Parliament for Maisonneuve, was born in Longueuil in 1850. He is a man of great ability and determination, which has been proved both in his parliamentary, civic and professional career.

A graduate of McGill in 1873, a lawyer by profession, and a King's Counsel.

Elected Mayor in 1898, he is now filling a second term.

HONORABLE GEORGE A. DRUMMOND

was born in Edinburgh in 1829, came to Canada when twenty-five years old. He is a man of unblemished reputation, and has been closely identified with Montreal's progress both in commerce, arts and philanthrophy. He was called to the Senate thirteen years ago, is Vice-President of the Bank of Montreal, and on the directorate of many commercial corporations.

DONALD ALEXANDER SMITH.

Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal was born in Scotland in 1820, and came to this country when eighteen years of age, and entered the Hon. the Hudson Bay Co., advancing step by step until he is now Governor of the Company.

It was in 1886 that he became Sir Donald Smith, and in 1897, the occasion of the late Queen Victoria's jubilee, he was raised to the peerage.

His Lordship's generosity, both to higher education and charities, is known the world over.

The motto "Diligence," and crest "A beaver gnawing a log," aptly summarize the traits of character which have made him one of the first men in the Empire.

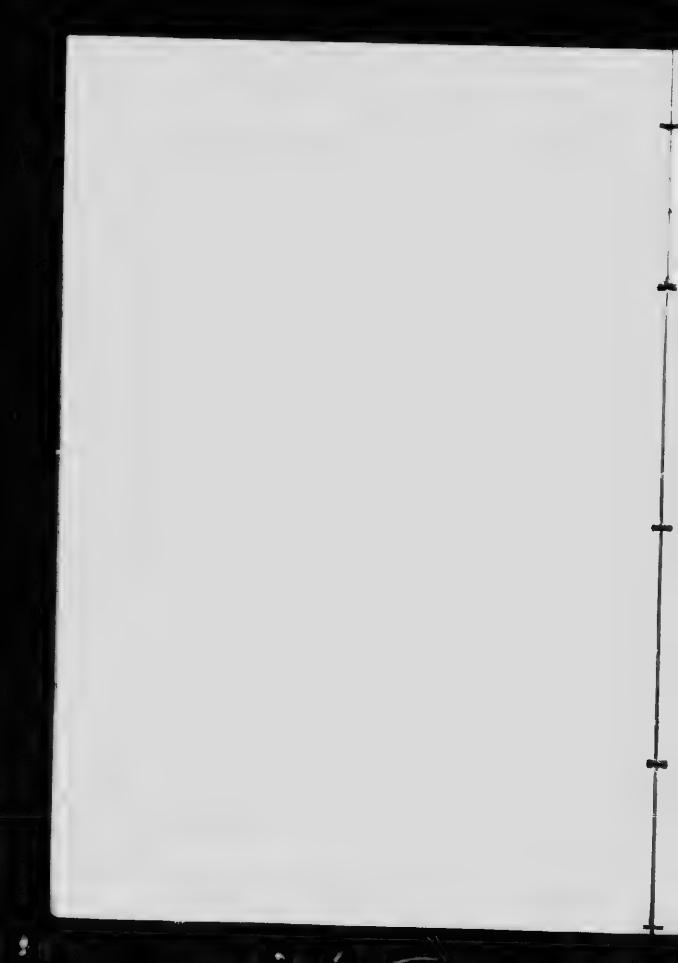

His Lordship was appointed High Commissioner for Canada in London in 1896.

LAVAL UNIVERSITY

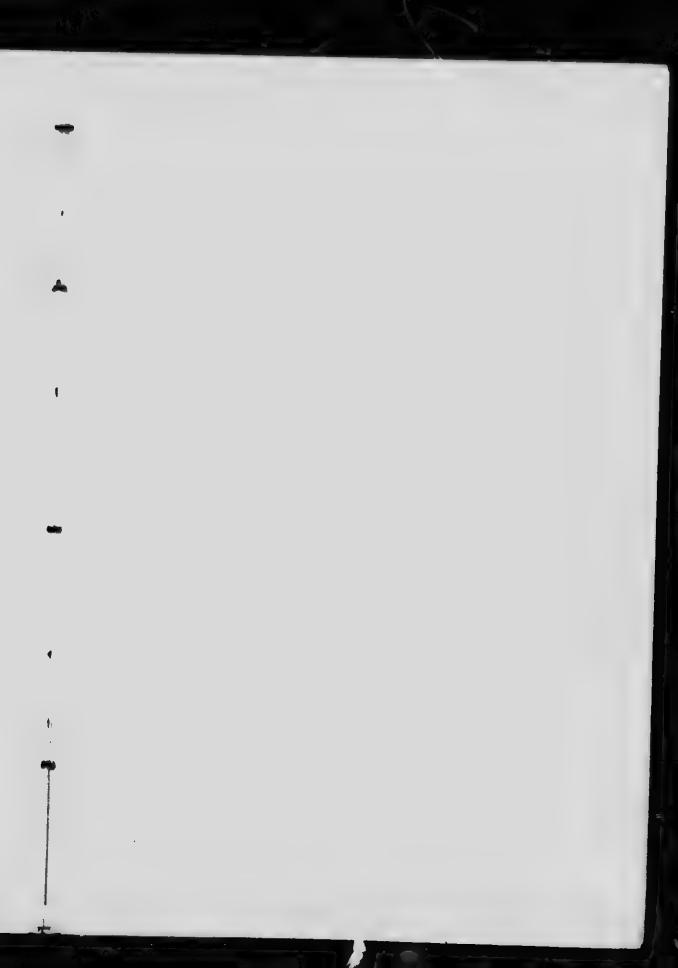

was founded in Quebec in 1852, but as a college goes back to the days of the old règime. Some years ago they moved into the splendidly equipped building on St. Denis Street. Mgr. Laflamme, the eminent historian, is Rector at Quebec, and Mgr. Racicot vice-Rector here. Among the alumni are and have been some of the most distinguished Canadians.

ROYAL VICTORIA COLLEGE FOR WOMEN is one of Lord Strathcona's most recent gifts to McG !1 University.

The building is situated on Sherbrooke Street, outside the College grounds, but close enough for the convenience of the students.

In front of the building is a fine statue, in bronze, of our late Queen, the design being the work of Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyle.

ROYAL VICTORIA COLLEGE.

VICTORIA SQUARE.

McGILL UNIVERSITY.

In McGill University Montreal can boast of possessing an institution of learning which ranks with the best in the world, whether as to buildings, equipment, or teaching staff. The foundation of the college was due to Hon. James McGill, who left his residence, Burnside, for that purpose. Although chartered in 1821, it was 1829 before teaching began. Since then wealthy Montrealers have vied with each other in adding to its efficiency. William Molson, Peter Redpath, Thomas Workman, J. H. R. Molson, Sir Wm. C. McDonald, and Lord Strathcona being among the number. Dr. Peterson is the present Principal.

VICTORIA BRIDGE.

Whether the original construction of the Victoria Bridge or its re-building be considered, it is unquestionably one of the greatest engineering feats in the world. The first bridge was a single-track tubular one; its successor is a girder and lattice-work double-track bridge, with roadways for pedestrians and vehicles. The bridge is a mile and three-quarters in length, and rests on twenty-four piers. The first stone was laid July 20, 1854, the first train passed over the bridge December 19, 1859, and the Prince of Wales drove the last rivet and opened the bridge August 25, 1860. The new bridge was constructed between 1896 and 1898, without interfering with traffic.

THE CHATEAU DE RAMEZAY.

This building is one of the oldest in Canada, having been erected by Claude de Ramezay, Governor of Montreal, between 1703 and 1706

After being occupied for many purposes it was bought by the City, in 1893, for a free Museum, and has since been under the management of the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society, who handed over their fine collection as the nucleus of a museum.

There is a priceless collection within its walls of relics of old Montreal.

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL.

SHERBROOKE STREET, SHOWING SENATOR DRUMMOND'S RESIDENCE.

THE ROYAL VICTORIA HOSPITAL

is Montreal's only memorial of the Empire's greatest sovereign, and for it citizens have to thank the munificence of two men—Lord Strathcona and Lord Mount Stephen.

The site is unequalled for hospital purposes, being on Pine Avenue, just below the Mountain bluff.

It was opened by Lord Aberdeen, then Governor-General, December 2nd, 1893.

BONSECOURS CHURCH.

Bonsecours Church is the oldest place of worship in Montreal, and goes back as a site to the foundation of the city. The original building was burned down in 1754, and the present edifice was commenced in 1771. In 1833 it had a narrow escape from destruction in the St. Paul Street fire, the steeple catching several times. The church, which is a most interesting old place to visit, was restored a few years since, an ærial chapel constructed high up in the air, and the figure of the Virgin, which had always stood on the roof, replaced by a massive gilt statue.
